In the matter of adopting the basic tenets of ) the Incident Command System as part of ) the National Incident Management System ) (NIMS) for all of Perrysburg Township, )
Wood County, Ohio.

August 15, 2005 regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of Perrysburg Township, Wood County, Ohio.

WHEREAS, President Bush issued Homeland Security Presidential Directive (HSPD)-5, Management of Domestic Incidents, on February 28, 2003, directing the Secretary of Homeland Security to develop, submit for review to the Homeland Security Council, and administer a National Incident Management System (NIMS); and

WHEREAS, NIMS will provide a consistent nationwide approach allowing federal, state, local and tribal governments to work effectively and efficiently to prevent, prepare for, respond to, and recover from domestic incidents; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Homeland Security has sought extensive input on NIMS from state, local, and tribal officials, the emergency response community, and the private sector and has incorporated the best practices currently in use by incident managers; and

WHEREAS, effective homeland security incident management involves new concepts, processes, and protocols that will require refinement over time and the collective input and guidance from all homeland security partners has been, and will continue to be vital to the further development of an effective and comprehensive national incident management system; and

WHEREAS, NIMS was published by the Department of Homeland Security on March 1, 2004; and

WHEREAS, HSPD-5 and NIMS require all federal departments and agencies to adopt NIMS and use it in domestic incident management and emergency prevention, preparedness, response, recovery, and mitigation programs and activities, as well as to assist state, local, or tribal entities; and

WHEREAS, HSPD-5 and NIMS require federal departments and agencies to make state, tribal and local organizations adopt NIMS as a condition for federal preparedness assistance beginning in federal FY 2005; and

WHEREAS, short-term compliance will include adopting the basic tenets of the Incident Command System identified in the NIMS document. By October 1, 2004, the Secretary of Homeland Security will publish standards, guidelines, and protocols for determining compliance; and

WHEREAS, on July 30, 2004 Bob Taft, Governor of the State of Ohio, pursuant to Section 107.18 of the Ohio Revised Code, signed an Executive Order which adopted the basic tenets of the Incident Command System identified in the NIMS document; and
