PERRYSBURG TOWNSHIP INTRODUCES AN AREA GUIDE FOR RESIDENTS

PERRYSBURG TOWNSHIP, OH—Perrysburg Township is proud to announce a new publication entitled, A Resident Guide to Perrysburg Township and the Surrounding Area (hereafter: Resident Guide). The Resident Guide is meant to serve as a repository related to information and services provided by Perrysburg Township. It also includes details about the surrounding area such as location of schools and places of worship.

The Resident Guide addresses frequently asked questions and compiles the answers in one convenient location. It also includes maps of the area, which is very useful for newer residents. Overall the Resident Guide is intended to provide pertinent information for residents living in or moving to Perrysburg Township.

In efforts to maintain a sustainable environment, a limited amount of printed Resident Guide copies are available upon request (until supplies last). The entire Resident Guide is accessible via the Perrysburg Township website at www.perrysburgtownship.us.

Nestled in Northern Wood County, Perrysburg Township was established in 1823 and is home to a large residential population, a vibrant industrial and commercial sector, and a strong agricultural base. Perrysburg Township is governed by a three-member Board of Trustees; there is also an elected Township Fiscal Officer who provides a record of the Township's financial accounts. For more information about Perrysburg Township please visit www.perrysburgtownship.us.
