Press Release

August 21, 2013

Today (August 21, 2013) at 0640 hours the Subway restaurant (10677 Fremont Pike) was robbed by a suspect who was described as a white female. The suspect did use an undisclosed weapon and the employee working at the subway at the time was injured during the incident. Please note the victim was still being treated for her injuries at St. Luke's Hospital at the time of this press release.

Officers from the Perrysburg Township Police Department responded to the call for help. During the investigation the officers were able to determine who the suspect was and a possible location she could be at.

The investigating officers responded to the Econolodge located behind the Subway and located in the City of Perrysburg. After a search warrant was signed for room 121, the room was entered and two suspects were present and arrested at approximately 0915 hours. The information for the suspects is as follows:

1. Amanda Columber
W/F, age 25
Address - 10677 Econolodge (room 121)
Charges – Aggravated Robbery
Felonious Assault
Also a warrant for larceny
2. Chad Martin
W/M, age 30
Address – 10677 Econolodge (room 121)
Charges – Felony Drug Paraphernalia

The suspects were transported to Perrysburg Municipal Court and will be sent to the Wood Justice Center.

Respectfully,

Deputy Chief Mike Gilmore
Perrysburg Township Police Department
